

John Vechey

How John Started

John started by making a game in 1997 called ARC, an online paintball simulation. He made it with a colleague named Brian Fiete who ended up being the co-owner of Popcap

About Popcap

Popcap is a producer of games. They make many iphone apps and website games including: Plants vs. Zombies, Bejeweled, and many more top hits.

Current Work

Popcap is currently making their games buyable on xbox360. They sell some games already on the Xbox Live Marketplace.

Something Interesting

When John grew up, he had really bad grades. His GPA in college was a 1.67.
